to Clarisell, me

Bill,

Happy new year and I hope all is well. Just an update on this, we did receive a quote back however I'm working with the firm now to adjust as there were a lot of items that would not be necessary for our project. I will be sending them a revision to get back an appropriate estimate for the level of design and construction documents we will need.

Once I have that back I will share with you.

Regards,
